DAD LAUNCHES BID TO BAN PESTICIDE LINKED TO CANCER

• Campaigner Richard MacKenzie with his four-year-old son Bobby by the park where he noticed glyphosate is being used in Witney

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A DAD has launched a petition to ban harmful pesticides with links to cancer from being used on Witney's parks, playgrounds and hedgerows.

Horticulture assistant Richard MacKenzie set up the E-petition on Monday to stop glyphosate being used in public spaces.

The World Health Organisation (WHO) listed glyphosate as "probably carcinogenic to humans" in March this year. Carcinogens are substances capable of causing cancer.

Manor Road resident Mr MacKenzie first noticed glyphosate was being used in Witney while taking four-year-old son Bobby to Oxlease park last month.

The 35-year-old said: "I take my son to the park near Wadards Meadow after school and he was playing just outside the park and I noticed the tell tale signs of glyphosate use - there was a ring of dead grass around the tree."

Two men killed in Enstone air crash

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

TWO men were killed in a plane crash over Oxfordshire on Friday.

A microlight plane came down at Enstone Airfield near Chipping Norton at about 7pm on July 3.

The pilot and passenger both died at the scene after paramedics were called to the crash at about 7.16pm.

Their names have not yet been released, but police confirmed the pilot was a man in his 60s and the passenger was a man in his 50s.

Thames Valley Police and Oxfordshire Fire and Rescue service were both called to the scene at 7.20pm.

Fire engines from Charlbury and Chipping Norton and a specialist rescue team from Kidlington were sent to help paramedics from South Central Ambulance Service.

Fire and Rescue Service incident commander Mick Clarke said: "This was a tragic incident that has led to two lives being lost.

"We attended the scene to assist both the ambulance and police service before handing over to the Air Accident Investigation Branch (AAIB).

• An example of a microlight.

"Our thoughts are with the family of those involved."

AAIB spokesperson Rob Macpherson said: "AAIB are investigating and will report in due course."

He added: "The AAIB don't give a running commentary of their investigation and information won't be available until the publish their full report.

"They decide whether or not an investigation needs to be carried out and then a team will be sent to the site.

"No two investigations and no two accidents are alike. Investigations are usually a matter of months rather than weeks."

"The AAIB can also make recommendations to airfields, aircraft manufacturers and individuals such as pilots.

"Where death's occur there is almost always an investigation.

"It is the AAIB's role to uphold aviation safety."

The families of the two men have been informed.

Public save Oxford's 'greatest painting'

RESIDENTS have donated £60,000 to the Ashmolean Museum to save Oxford's 'greatest ever painting', the museum's director announced on Tuesday.

The Ashmolean, in Beaumont Street, launched a campaign last month asking the public to help raise the money to them keep Joseph Mallord William Turner's 'The High Street, Oxford' – on top of £864,000 already secured.

In total 800 people contributed cash to save Turner's 1810 oil painting of High Street.

Ashmolean director Alexander Sturgis said: "The Museum has been overwhelmed by the public support.

"It is clear the local community, as well as visitors to the museum from across the world feel that this picture, the greatest painting ever made, must remain on show in a public museum in Oxford."

The painting has been a part of the museum since 1997 and was offered in lieu of £3.5m inheritance tax.

The museum also got £550,000 from the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF), a £220,000 grant from the Art Fund and £30,000 from museum patrons and friends.

Stephen Deuchar, Head of HLF South East England, said: "It would have been such a tragedy to lose this beautiful and important work of art by Turner – and clearly the public felt the same."

RAF's new Airbus delivered to base

RAF Brize Norton's new £125million Airbus landed to report for duty at the Oxfordshire airbase on Sunday.

The Airbus A400M Atlas is the third of 22 new planes being built in Spain for the UK.

It is dubbed the "next-generation transport aircraft" by the Ministry of Defence.

But in May the two other Atlas aircraft - delivered in November and February to RAF Brize Norton - were temporarily grounded.

The MOD stopped using them in May after an Atlas crashed in Seville during a test flight, killing four people.

The MOD's Chief of Defence Materiel, Sir Bernard Gray, said: "Having now undertaken and completed thorough checks on the UK's A400M aircraft, I am satisfied that we have fulfilled

By Alex Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

and allowed for the safe delivery of this third aircraft.

"We are very mindful of the recent tragedy in Spain and our thoughts remain with the families and friends of those affected by these terrible events.

"This world-class aircraft will have an important role to fulfill with the Royal Air Force and the programme is at the forefront of modern technology and the RAF is looking forward to receiving its full order in due course."

On May 29 Airbus' Chief Strategy Officer Marwan Lahoud confirmed incorrectly installed engine software caused the crash.

The RAF resumed flying the A400M Atlas on June 16.

The planes are part of a £2.75billion programme to replace the C-130 Hercules when they go out of service in 2022.

Liam Walker from the Witney Conservative Future organization who also organized the Witney Armed Forces Day celebrations said: "Its great to see investment in the RAF here. Brize Norton has seen many changes over the years and this confirms the importance of the base as major operations are carried out from there."

Dad launches petition to ban pesticide from public spaces

He added: "I don't want him being exposed to a pesticide the World Health Organsiation have said is a probable carcinogen.

"I think that we need to stop using glyphosate now until we know more about it. If, later down the line, it's proven it has no harmful effects then we can start using it again."

He has collected 15 of its target 100 signatures and is campaigning to raise awareness.

Mr MacKenzie said Cottsway Housing Association, who manage 4,500 homes in West Oxfordshire, confirmed to him by email that they use the pesticide in Wadards Meadow near Cogges Manor Farm.

Spokesperson for Cottsway, Dee Hempstead said: " I can confirm that our contactor uses Glyphosate as a herbicide to control weeds. There is no restriction on its availability, it is widely used and can be bought over the counter. Our contractors manage its use in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions. We are aware of recent concerns and will keep this under review."

West Oxfordshire District Council uses environmental services agency Ubico to manage its public spaces.

Ubico's environmental and commercial manager Bob Lightfoot said the company has scaled back its use of glyphosate.

He added: "We use glyphosate where we have no other option under strict conditions. We use it in sports parks where we have no other choice."

The best known brand of the pesticide is called Roundup – made by USA-based company Monsanto.

The International Agency for Research on Cancer - the branch of the WHO that announced the pesticide's possible harmful effects - also said there was "limited evidence" on the matter.

Agricultural journalist and anti-pesticide campaigner Georgina Downs said: "This yet again raises serious questions as to why such poisonous chemicals continue to be used in both the agricultural and the non-agricultural sectors.

"There are non-chemical methods of weed control which must be utilised by local authorities and private companies in order to eliminate the use of harmful chemicals in public areas and which would then prevent any pesticide related health impacts from occurring."

To view the petition go to 38degrees.org.uk and search for Witney.

Nun barred following sex abuse allegations

THE founder of Helen and Douglas House has been barred from returning to the hospices following allegations of historic sexual abuse.

Sister Frances Dominica, 72, who was given an OBE in 2006 for her services to healthcare, was arrested in November 2013.

She wholly denies the allegations and was never charged by police.

But the trustees of the hospice have now decided to implement a risk assessment report that it commissioned along with the All Saints Sisters of the Poor (ASSP) society in Oxford, where she was Mother Superior for 12 years.

When the allegations originally emerged, Sister Frances was asked not to return to the hospices and to step aside as a hospice trustee whilst the investigation was being carried out.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Thames Valley Police spokeswoman Charlotte Redman said police received allegations of indecent assault that took place in Oxford between 1980 and 2000.

She said: "The offences were reported to police in July 2013 by a third party and subsequent investigations identified two female victims.

"A 72-year-old woman was arrested in connection with the investigation in November 2013, on suspicion of indecent assault on a woman over 16 years of age."

A decision was then made by the Crown Prosecution Service not to charge her and Sister Frances was released in July 2014 with no live investigation ongoing.

A statement from Helen and Douglas House read: "We can confirm that Sister Frances Dominica will not return to Helen & Douglas House.

"As soon as the allegations were raised in July 2013, Sister Frances agreed at our request to step away from all activity at Helen & Douglas House."

However a statement on behalf of Sister Frances' lawyer, Lee Fisher, implied that Sister Frances has not ruled out returning to the hospices.

The statement said: "The allegations made are wholly refuted by our client."

It continued: "The police investigation did not find there was any case to answer and she does not want to comment on any ongoing issues.

"She has nothing else to say except that she remains committed to the hospice, which is a cause she cares about profoundly and she is confident that she will be able to continue her duties there."

Jean Raphael, community leader for ASSP, said: "An independent risk assessment has recently been completed and the conclusions are being considered carefully by the sisters."

She said the sisters of ASSP have worked with relevant statutory bodies since the issue was first raised, co-operating alongside police for the investigation.

She added: "The sisters take the issue of safeguarding very seriously."

The hospices reiterated that the allegations did not relate in any way to activities at Helen & Douglas House.

The hospice, in Magdalen Road, Oxford, also said that it is unable to make the risk assessment or its specific recommendations available to the public.

Sister Frances founded Helen House in Oxford in 1982, which was the world's first children's hospice.

Douglas House, caring specifically for terminally ill young adults, opened in 2004.

Sports village

BICESTER: A £3.3million two-storey sports pavilion at the new Bicester Sports Village on the Kingmere Estate is on track to be completed in time for the 2016/17 season.

A planning application for the new sports village is due to be submitted in October, and will feature new grass pitches, a cycling/jogging track and a function room at the pavilion, with enough space to accommodate 150 seated guests.

Cherwell District Council's executive board met on Monday, where it was revealed that despite budget constraints, the sports village, which features a 170-space car park, should be ready by next June.

Families converge at emotional 50th anniversary of air disaster

RESIDENTS 'fought back tears' at a memorial service in Toot Baldon on Sunday to mark the 50th anniversary of one of Oxfordshire's worst peacetime air accidents.

On July 6, 1965, 41 people died when an RAF heavy transport aircraft crashed in a field between Little Baldon and Chiselhampton.

Sunday's memorial service at St Lawrence's Parish church was held at 11am, before a flypast from an RAF Hercules Plane at Midday and a parachute drop by the RAF Falcons display team on Marsh Baldon village green.

Hugh Jaeger, a public transport campaigner who attended the memorial, said: "It was such a lovely celebration and you could really see people fighting back tears in the middle of the service.

"It meant something different to each generation and you could really see the emotional impact of the whole event. It was very raw for the people who were there that day when the plane crashed."

Prince Charles is colonel-in-chief of the RAF Parachute regiment, and sent a personal message of sympathy which was read out at the event.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

It said: "My thoughts and prayers are with all those gathered at Little Baldon today to remember all the victims of the tragic air crash.

"Those men were a testament to the airborne forces.

"I hope it is some small comfort to those gathered that their memory lives on."

The plane that crashed was a four-engine Handley Page Hastings on a parachute training flight, and had six RAF crew and 24 RAF and 11 British Army passengers, 10 of whom were from the Parachute Regiment.

It took off from RAF Abingdon and its parachutists were to jump at RAF Weston-on-the-Green and land at RAF Benson.

Metal fatigue caused an elevator in the starboard wing to fail and the pilot struggled with the plane over Berinsfield, with the plane rising into a vertical climb before falling on its back in a field of barley, bursting into flames.

Fire crews from RAF Abingdon and RAF Benson and fire crews from local stations at Abingdon, Didcot, Oxford and Watlington fought the fire.

Four of the parachutists lived in Abingdon and one each from Bicester, Didcot and Wantage, with the pilot from Headington.

Families of the crash victims travelled from New Zealand, Australia, Northern Ireland and Newcastle-upon-Tyne to be at the event.

Wantage development proposals approved

PLANS to turn Wantage's empty magistrates' court and police station into flats and build more than 100 homes in Grove were approved at a planning meeting last week.

A proposal to build homes on Wantage Tennis Club's courts in Foliat Drive was also granted permission at Vale of White Horse District Council's planning committee meeting at Abingdon's Guildhall last Wednesday.

Wantage councillor and planning committee member Jenny Hannaby said: "Councillors have scuppered our emerging Wantage local plan by approving this.

"I wanted the council to defer the decision so there could be further discussion, but it wasn't to be."

Developer Renaissance Retirement was given permission to bulldoze the old courthouse and police station to build 32 retirement flats in Church Street, despite objections being made by residents and Wantage Town Council.

Renaissance must also make a £125,000 contribution to the provision of affordable housing in Wantage.

Renaissance managing director Robert Taylor said: "This is very good news for many local people who will be looking to downsize into a stunning new development in the centre of Wantage."

The outline application for 133 homes at Monk's Farm in Grove, near North Drive, was made by developers Gallagher Estates and Gleeson.

The committee accepted the application by eight votes to three, despite opposition from Grove Parish Council.

Plans to build six homes on the site of Wantage Tennis Club were also granted as the club looks to move to Manor Road Recreation Ground, where it wants to expand by building four tennis courts and a new pavilion on the site.

Sister marked 7/7 bombings

By Alex Ballinger

AN OXFORD woman remembered the moment her little sister was killed in the 7/7 London bombings as rush hour commuters halted to mark the 10th anniversary on Tuesday.

The 2005 terrorist attack killed 52 people when three suicide bombs were let off in tube stations, and a fourth was detonated on a London bus.

Miriam Hyman, 32, was travelling to work in London as a freelance picture researcher when she was killed in the bombings.

Miriam's sister Esther Hyman, 46, who lives in Cowley Road, said: "She was my little sister and she was taken from us because of hatred.

"We refuse to dwell on the way that she died. We cherish the time we had together. No one can take that.

"Miriam brings out the best in people. I use the present tense deliberately because she is continuing to bring out the best in people. The extent to which she is loved is a source of joy to me.

"Miriam was a warm, altruistic, generous person."

But 10 years on Esther is determined her memory will live on.

On Tuesday morning wreaths were laid at the July 7 Memorial in Hyde Park and a service was held at Tavistock Square where a bus bomb went off in 2005.

A minute's silence was held at tube stations in London at 8.50am – the time of the attack.

Esther said: "We spent the day in London at St Paul's Cathedral and the 7/7 memorial in Hyde Park. We're also having a gathering of close friends and family to remember Miriam.

"I feel very strong today. It's lovely being surrounded by all the support and warmth."

On June 1, Esther, who runs the Miriam Hyman Memorial Trust, launched a new mission to provide online resources for teachers inspired by her sister's memory, called Miriam's Vision.

She added: "Coming up to the 10th anniversary we wanted to mark it in a special way, and in a positive way. We didn't just want to grieve we wanted to do something to make the world better in Miriam's memory."

Miriam's Vision covers a range of curriculum topics, each inspired by Miriam's story.

Esther explained: "It's a resource that can be used by any English speaking person across the world to plan school their lessons and to educate children about 7/7 and about extremism.

"It tries to educate people through altruism and to steer people away from extremism and hatred.

"I also wanted people to learn about democracy and how democracy isn't perfect, but it involves debate and it can be improved."

The resources include lesson plans for history, geography, art, and business and enterprise.

It includes a group fundraising project for the class to encourage empathy and generosity.

Christopher Field

OXFORD: A former Woodcote school headteacher pleaded not guilty at Oxford Crown Court on Friday to four charges of sexual offences against two young girls.

Christopher Field, 46, from Green Lane, Chieveley, is accused of three counts of assault by touching and one count of inciting a girl under the age of 13 to engage in sexual activity.

It is alleged to have happened while Field was headteacher at Woodcote Primary School in Oxfordshire between 2010 and 2012.

Field is due in court on September 28 for a plea and directions hearing, with a provisional trial date set for January 18 next year.

Electric cars

OXFORD: Oxford City Council wants to hear from electric car owners to help produce a plan of what an electric vehicle-friendly Oxford would look like.

The plan hopes to aid the council in a bid for £35m government funding to improve facilities for electric cars.

Oxford is one of 12 cities that have been shortlisted for the final application stage of the Go Ultra Low City scheme, which is run by the Office for Low Emissions Vehicles.

New bus from Didcot to Harwell Campus launched

A NEW bus service linking Didcot Parkway to Harwell Campus launched on Monday.

Titled the 'Harwell Connector', the service will link the Harwell science area with Didcot four times an hour.

The bus service, called the X1/X32, is claimed to be part of a wider scheme to improve access to the Science Vale area, which employs a large contingency of Didcot residents.

The new service was funded by the Local Sustainable Transport Fund, backed by the Department for Transport, and was coordinated by Oxfordshire County Council.

Council leader Ian Hudspeth said: "We hope that the increased frequency of the service will lead to a step change in passenger use.

"It is a key part of the council's transit strategy connecting places of living to employment by different modes of transport.

"The more people that use this service, the better for the Science Vale, as a centre of excellence in science, innovation and job growth in Oxfordshire."

Thames Travel general manager Stefan Soanes said: "This is an exciting time for the South Oxfordshire area in general and Harwell and the Science Vale in particular."

The estimated journey time from Didcot Parkway to Harwell Campus will be between 25 and 30 minutes.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Millet feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truthis that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Knife in Cowley

OXFORD: A man took out a knife as he walked towards a boy and man in Cowley Road, but did not threaten them during a bizarre incident outside Sainsbury's.

A member of the public intervened as a man in a red t-shirt and white jeans approached a 15-year-old boy and a 35-year-old man with a knife on July 1.

The offender, described as white, 6ft, slim, in mid to late 30s, with dark hair, then left.

Sexual assault

WHEATLEY: A 16-year-old girl was touched inappropriately by a small group of men in their 20s last Thursday.

She was walking along London Road at around 12.30am when she was confronted by the group who made off afterwards.

Police are asking for anyone with information to ring 101.

Walking football

BICESTER: Older footballers can keep playing as new 'walking football' sessions open up.

The weekly over 50 sessions were launched by Cherwell District Council.

The players formed Cherwell Strollers Walking Football Club and have competed in tournaments against other clubs.

Sessions will take place at Bicester Leisure Centre on Thursdays from 3.30pm to 4.30pm and cost £2.50.

City transformed into an Alice Wonderland

OXFORD transformed into a Wonderland of Alice fans on Saturday to celebrate the 150th anniversary of Lewis Carroll's much-loved children's classic.

More than 150 people dressed up as Alices to mark July 4 - the date Carroll began telling 10-year-old Alice Liddell a tale of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland while rowing on the River Thames in Oxford.

The story was later written up as a book.

The Story Museum in Pembroke Street made sure Alice's Day was one to remember.

Museum spokesman David Gibb, said: "It was fantastic.

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"Around 3,000 people came through the museum throughout the day - we wanted to celebrate Alice in Wonderland and its legacy for surrealism and children's literature.

"This year was bigger and better than before as it's the 150th anniversary of the publication of Alice in Wonderland. We wanted a really special event.

"We also wanted to celebrate the book while celebrating Oxford as the home of children's literature."

Museum organisers tallied up 150 Alices to launch the celebrations, before hosting picture and writing workshops.

A story trail across Oxford also brought the book's 12 chapters to life.

Chapter five's task was to find a caterpillar at Oxford's Weston Library and ask him for advice.

Luke Gander, owner of Alice's Shop in St Aldate's, said: "We were in costume all day and we were giving away sweets to all the kids who were dressed up.

"It's great to associate Oxford with such an important piece of literary work for children's literature and also for the world."

The shop held talks on the book's connection to Oxford.

Blackwell's bookshop in Broad Street organised readings from the book as well as an appearance from the White Rabbit.

Blackwell's events coordinator Hannah Chinnery said: "Lewis Carroll was an amazing person - the story is so imaginative and people love it.

"People come from miles around to celebrate."

November will mark the 150 years since the book's publication.

Oxford heats up for the Cowley Road Carnival fiesta

Watch the video at oxfordshireguardian.co.uk

ABOUT 45,000 revellers celebrated a fiesta of colour, music and dance at Oxford's Cowley Road Carnival on Sunday.

Crowds lined the streets as a rabble of 38 groups sauntered and jigged their way down Cowley Road to the beat of drums and music blaring out the speakers along the route.

From Midday a hub of curious spectators arrived to indulge in the carnival atmosphere, before the procession weaved its way down Cowley Road from The Plain roundabout to Magdalen Road between 1.30pm until 3pm.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Lena Easton-Calabria flew from Seattle for the event.

The 22-year-old said: "I didn't really know what to expect. It is so amazing.

"You get a real understanding of the Oxford community from it and it is so nice and welcoming."

This year's theme was 'Creating our Future', to celebrate Oxford Brookes University's 150 year anniversary.

The university was at the forefront of the parade, flanked by a giant green caterpillar that heralded their arrival.

Vicky Thornton, one of the carnival's creative producers, said: "I think the day has been absolutely fantastic, you can tell by the sheer numbers that people have been really up for it."

Dancers popped and locked their way behind them with pupils and teachers from Oxfordshire schools.

Once the procession was over, the crowds converged into mini-street parties.

DJ's spun tracks in the streets and bars blared out performances from acoustic singalongs to loud dance music.

Rob Freshwater, 28, from East Oxford, said: "The whole event is so colourful and vibrant. It gets the whole community out and about in one big celebration.

"There's something here for everyone, it's just one big ensemble of people from all over Oxford, all wanting to get in on the party."

The partying carried on into the late afternoon.

Ian Williams, 28, from Headington, summed up the carnival: "It's the place where there's something for everyone, whether it's music, dance, food or just a good time."

Sarah Airey, marketing officer for the event, said: "It's been brilliant, this whole event brings the community together."

Council draw up plans for Botley shoppers

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

BOTLEY residents are to be given their say on how to improve shopping in the area after Vale of White District Council announced plans to draw up a publicly consulted planning document.

The council are drawing up a Supplementary Planning Document (SPD) for Botley's shopping area with help from architecture firm BDP, which contains planning guidance and will set out the type and scale of the location's new development.

Botley residents previously voted in a survey that their preference for the West Way shopping centre was for smaller, independent shops in the centre rather than bigger retail chain store units.

The public will be given the chance to share their views in a consultation on the SPD that starts towards the end of July and will extend over the coming months.

The Vale claim they will adopt the document as supplementary guidance and potentially update it to reflect the council's Local Plan 2031 when the SPD is adopted.

Co-chair of the West Way Community Concern group, Chris Church, said: "We are very pleased with the SPD it could be a viable option for the development, however, our concern is whether it will meet the local needs."

Developers Mace are currently working on new plans to develop the shopping centre, taking over from previous applicants Doric.

Huw Griffiths, development director at Mace, said: "We are aware that the council are drawing up a SPD. As agreed with the council earlier this year, we will continue to undertake consultation with residents and stakeholders on the redevelopment of West Way."

Chain stores and a cinema were in previous £100m plans to develop the West Way centre, which was turned down by the Vale of White Horse district council in December last year.

Mr Church believes the major issue with Mace's plans is that he claims they are looking to turn it into a district centre rather than a community centre.

He added: "We want this SPD to confirm the status of the application as a local service centre, we shouldn't be trying to bring in the whole city here as the centre is going to be primarily for the people of Botley, Cumnor and West Oxford."

Vale of White Horse council cabinet member for planning policy, Mike Murray, said: "What happens over the next year or so will have a huge impact on the kind of place Botley is for generations to come.

"It's vital we get it right for all parts of the community, young and old. This document will help make the whole process much better for everybody."

Heat melts oars in freak Henley Regatta incidents

THE heatwave had a mysterious impact at Henley regatta last week as temperatures melted rowers' oars.

An oar from King's School Canterbury's rowing team 'parted company' from its shaft half way through the race.

The freak incident occurred in the opening rounds of the Princess Elizabeth Challenge Cup for schoolboy eights.

The team went on to lose the race and the organisers admitted they were 'scuppered' in their quest for glory.

Dorset-based Canford School were also victims of the oddity.

Their race was rescheduled due to a team losing an oar on the way to the start line.

Henley Regatta spokeswoman Caroline Searle said: "Today's extreme heat, it would appear, caused the glue to melt between the plastic 'spoon' and the carbon-fibre shift of the high-tech oars."

The popular annual Royal Henley Regatta ran until Sunday in The Thames at Henley Bridge and saw around 300,000 visitors over the course of the five-day event.

Oxfordshire representatives Abingdon School bowed out early in the event after St Paul's School beat them in Wednesday's morning session.

The event was in its 176th year and was broadcast around the world in a live stream, the first time it was broadcasted live since 1967.

Meerkats cool off in heatwave

• Devouring a watermelon

THE meerkat clan at Oxfordshire's Cotswold Wildlife Park enjoyed summer treats to cool down in the record-breaking temperatures on Wednesday.

Meerkats snapped up the offer from park keepers offering watermelons and ice lollies for a refreshing reprieve from the heatwave.

Temperatures at nearby RAF Brize Norton hit 32.7 degrees Celcius.

Head of primates Chris Kibbey said: "It seemed the perfect time to give our Meerkat clan some of their favourite summer treats.

"Alpha male Marley particularly enjoyed the watermelon."

Concern voiced over big rise in fly-tipping

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

ILLEGAL fly-tipping in Oxfordshire has almost doubled in the first five months of this year.

Between January 1 and May 31, there were 801 reported cases of fly-tipping - up from 494 cases during the same period in 2014.

The figures were released by Oxford City Council last Wednesday.

John Tanner, council board member for climate change and environmental project Cleaner, Greener Oxford, said the cost of picking up other people's dumped rubbish in Oxford cost-taxpayers about £100,000 a year.

He said: "I think there are two reasons: there are people who don't know what to do with their waste and there are irresponsible businesses who want to avoid costs."

Two Oxfordshire men were fined £21,000 at Oxford Crown Court last month for dumping 3,000 tonnes of illegal waste at a farm near Bampton.

Rosanne Bostock, of Oxclean - an Oxford Civic Society initiative to keep Oxford free of litter - said: "It is a serious problem not just in Oxford but in the county.

"Whenever I'm driving around in the countryside, you see bags of rubbish in lay-bys and in hedges."

She added: "I blame places like Redbridge Recycling Centre. Anyone disposing of waste has to pay and has to queue up to get it weighed, so people are just dropping it in hedges because it's easier.

"I think the best way to solve it would be for the council to offer a service of waste collection where you pay them directly."

Oxfordshire County Council's Redbridge centre in Old Abingdon Road charges for some items such as DIY waste and tyres but is free for most types of household waste.

A partnership of Oxfordshire councils had previously worked together to deal with the county's waste. However the Oxfordshire Waste Partnership (OWP) was disbanded following budget cuts in April 2014.

Cllr Tanner added: "The disbanding of the OWP certainly didn't help the fly-tipping problem. There were officers meeting regularly on how to combat the issue."

Councillor's Column

Cllr Bob Price
Leader of Oxford City Council

'Another housing crisis looms'

THE housing crisis was widely recognised in the general election by all political parties.

Now, two months after the election, the only measure announced on housing is set to make the housing crisis worse.

The extension of 'right to buy' to tenants of housing associations has been condemned by the former head of the Civil Service, the Financial Times and the Chartered Institute of Housing.

Official figures for the sale of council-owned homes since the Tory government increased discounts in 2012 show for every nine homes sold, only one new home has been built to replace them.

Nearly 30,000 homes have been lost to council ownership, and only 3,337 have been started or built.

With a maximum discount outside London of £78,000, the sell-off results in a huge loss to the public purse and a big gain to the private purchaser.

To make matters worse, up to a half of homes sold under the right to buy over the last 30 years have now passed into the hands of private landlords, not families.

The Government is now proposing to open up the 1.3million Housing Association homes to the same fate.

To pay for the cost of compensating the associations, councils will be forced to sell their most valuable homes when they become vacant.

In Oxford, this will mean the number of homes the council can offer to families on the waiting list will be reduced from around 600 a year to about 300.

The result will be longer waiting lists, more expensive rent, higher benefit payments, overcrowding and increased social misery.

Hurry... Don't miss out on this home of the week!

WIN tickets to Fairport's Cropredy 2015!

ANYONE attending a village fete in Cropredy in the 70's would have looked at you as if you were insane had you tried to convince them that nearly 40 years later Fairport Convention's contribution to village life was to grow to one of the most loved festivals in the country.

From it's simple musical session over an afternoon the festival has grown to a three day monster that draws 20,000 fans to see up to twenty different bands that cover a wide range of music.

This year's headliners for the 36th festival include Emmylou Harris, Rodney Crowell and Level 42 and the customary Saturday night closing performance from host band Fairport Convention will be preceded by a set from Al Stewart. Other notable acts include Trad Arrr, Dreadzone and Katzenjammer on Thursday; ahab, Judith Owen, Skinny Lister, Skerryvore, Fish, and The Proclaimers on Friday; Richard Digance, Kevin Dempsey and Rosie Carson, The New Grasscutters, Band of Friends and Toyah Wilcox on Saturday.. As in previous years, Cropredy will feature the winners of the BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Award.

Closing date:
Wednesday, July 29

If it was just the music it would be enough but Cropredy also has an amazing relaxed atmosphere that is unequalled at any other UK summer event. This year the festival runs from Thursday the 13th to Saturday 15th of August. For more details and to book tickets visit www.fairportconvention.com

We have a family ticket pack for the weekend for one lucky winner who will get to enjoy three days of good music and real ale. The ticket pack includes a pair of adult weekend tickets, camping ticket and up to three under 12 child tickets.

Second prize is a pair of adult tickets to the Saturday.

All you have to do to be in with a chance of winning one of these amazing prizes is answer this simple question:

Q: Which band is playing the closing set of the festival?

WIN tickets to the Silverstone Classic

THE WORLDS BIGGEST CLASSIC MOTOR RACING FESTIVAL

THIS summer's extra-special 25th anniversary Silverstone Classic (24-26 July) is going to be the most spectacular yet with a host of dazzling Silver Jubilee celebrations. In this amazing competition, we are giving away a pair of weekend tickets as a main prize and we have four Sunday pairs as runners up prizes.

The glittering annual extravaganza is already established as the World's Biggest Classic Motor Racing Festival but the sheer scale of this not-to-be-missed event is hard to grasp. The vast Silverstone estate is crammed with mouth-watering attractions, eye-catching displays, car clubs, shops, vintage funfairs, street car shoot-outs, aviation and so much more fabulous family entertainment.

At the heart of the best-ever mammoth three-day event is the outstanding on-track action with epic races bringing together some of the finest historic classes in Europe. The non-stop schedule includes more than 20 sensational showdowns – all featuring packed 50-car grids loaded with legendary GT, sports, saloon and F1 cars from past generations.

Closing date:
Friday, July 17, 2015

The sensational racing, though, is just part of the full story. A record number of 100+ motor clubs will be displaying in excess of 10,000 classic cars on the in-field area – many also providing sparkling track parades to mark their own motoring milestones.

Tickets (which must be purchased in advance) not only provide free access to all the race paddocks and displays but also free seating in trackside grandstands plus free admission to the Classic's renowned live music concerts.

In celebration of this year's Silver Jubilee, rock legends Status Quo are headlining on Saturday evening with chart-topper Paul Young topping Friday night's bill.

For more information and full ticket details visit the official www.silverstoneclassic.com website.

However, to enter our great competition to win 'Super Sunday' tickets to this summer's landmark festival, simply answer the question below:

Q: The Silverstone Classic was founded in 1990 – which special anniversary is it celebrating this summer?

Is it a Pearl Jubilee, Silver Jubilee or Diamond Jubilee?

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Truck Festival Special

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"WE'VE always tried to make our live performances as energetic and interactive as possible, so expect to get involved."

These were the words of drummer Matt Donnelly as alternative rock band Don Broco gets set to take the stage of this year's Truck Festival for the first time.

Next Friday night, Rob Damiani (lead vocals), Simon Delaney (guitar and backing vocals), Matt Donnelly (drums and backing vocals) and Tom Doyle (bass guitar) will get the crowd going from the spotlight of the Truck stage.

Matt warned there was often an air of unpredictability during their live shows.

"You might just see one of us fall over on stage, as for some reason that's happened a lot recently.

"If it happens again and something breaks though, we'll try and follow Dave Grohl's example."

Don Broco was formed in 2008 and saw a switchover of bass guitarists in 2012.

The band has since established itself as a strong force in the rock scene, and muscled its way into the Reading and Leeds festival line-ups.

Don Broco's debut album, 'Priorities', peaked at number 25 in the UK album charts three years ago.

Matt is certain the group's graft of recording tracks and touring is finally paying off.

"I think you need a certain level of confidence to survive in music, but I don't think you get that without knowing that you've worked hard on it every day," he explained.

"We all knew from the ages of 12 or 13 that we wanted to be musicians.

"It was when we first started going to gigs together and first picked up instruments ourselves.

"We were in the music rooms of our school jamming pretty much every lunch break from that point on."

The band's Truck appearance is one of a string of festivals it will play this summer.

Don Broco will take in Y Not Festival in Derbyshire, the Make a Scene Festival in Middlesbrough, the Reading Festival, and Leeds Festival before releasing its new album, 'Automatic', on August 7.

"One of the new album's strongest themes is that of taking chances and living in the moment," Matt added.

"In the last few years as a band, we really learnt the value of being able to enjoy taking every day as it comes.

"Often people worry so much about the future that they don't appreciate what's happening in the present."

Truck Festival Special

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

CLEAN Bandit, Basement Jaxx and Rae Morris are among the big-name acts set to headline at one of Oxfordshire's most popular annual music events, Truck Festival.

Truck was created in 1998 by brothers and Goldrush group members Joe and Robin Bennett, who believed other festivals such as the famous Glastonbury had become too predictable and commercial.

Since its inception 17 years ago, artists such as Biffy Clyro, Lethal Bizzle, Noah and the Whale and Chase & Status have played the stages at the festival's Hill Farm, Steventon, venue.

One artist hoping to make her mark at this year's festival is 26-year old acoustic singer-songwriter Lucy Rose, who performed at the music event two years ago.

Lucy said: "I guess the audience can expect a different show than they would imagine.

"My new record is not really acoustic at all. It's all a lot louder, rockier and bolder in many ways.

"I'm off the stool (if you've seen me play before, I used to sit on a stool) and now exploring the world from the standing position.

• Lucy Rose will be performing on Saturday

"I also had a great time last time and I remember meeting a lady dressed in a penguin outfit and everyone being really friendly and up for it."

Lucy burst on to the mainstream scene back in 2012 with her debut album, 'Like I Used To', which peaked at number 13 in the UK Album Charts.

However, Lucy's decision to pursue her dream of a music career came at a cost, as the singer turned down a place to read geography at University College London.

But after three years which has seen Lucy release a new album, 'Work It Out', work on creating a fresh new sound and performing on a European tour, the Surrey-born musician believes she made the right choice.

"It was definitely a risky decision and one that my parents supported but I'm sure made them slightly nervous at times," Lucy told the Guardian.

"The fact that my job is making and playing music, I feel like the luckiest person in the world every day.

"Also, the latest album is really just 13 diary entries over the last three years.

"Each song means a lot to me and the music is still deeply personal.

"I guess my inspiration is taking in everything that's going on around me."

Gearing up to host more festival music

MORE than 120 musicians will be heading to an Oxfordshire farm for the 18th annual Truck Festival next Friday and Saturday.

Big-name acts and festival first-timers will join forces to perform to thousands of fans during the two-day festival at Hill Farm, Steventon.

But behind every great music festival, there has to be a background team to secure the line-up, set up the stages, sell the tickets, fetch favours for the stars and promote the festival.

And that last task is the job of marketing manager Matt Harrap, who is living the dream to help plan one of Oxfordshire's most popular music events.

"Before I was involved in the festival, I attended every year from the age of 15, so when I was asked to come and help out I jumped at the chance," Matt told the Guardian.

"Now I look after many areas of the festival including creating the line-up alongside a select group of Truckers, running the social media pages and organising any marketing campaigns, alongside a few

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

other things. We're also totally different from every major festival.

"I haven't got any time for events with overpriced tickets or areas where you cannot bring your own drinks.

"They're just money-making machines made by people who don't understand what experiencing festivals are really about.

"Music festivals should be for everyone and there should be as few barriers to people coming and enjoying them as possible."

Truck is dubbed by organisers as "the Godfather of the small festival scene" and was shortlisted as 'Best Small Festival' by The UK Festival Awards in 2013 and 2014.

You might think that being part of the organising team would serve up its fair share of stresses and strains - health-and-safety regulations need to be spot on, musicians need to arrive on time in the right place with the right equipment, catering must be organised, and timings have to run with second-by-second accuracy - generally.

But Matt is taking it all in his stride: "We have a brilliant team that I have the pleasure of working alongside before and at the festival who ensure that everything runs as smoothly as possible during the event.

"And as soon as the festival finishes, it is all systems go.

"It's so much fun to have a blank canvas, as you just want to get going on the next one.

"I could safely say Truck is one of the best festivals in the country to work at - and that is mostly down to everyone that attends the festival.

"They are always in good spirits, are always so friendly and pleasant to be around so that makes it a lot easier for us."

And as a music lover himself, the marketing manager revealed which acts he was itching to see.

"I've never had the privilege of seeing The Charlatans before, so I'm really looking forward to that."

Citroën C4 Cactus wins Tow Car Award

THE Citroën C4 Cactus won an award at this year's Tow Car Award.

The 2014 vehicle picked up the 'Best Ultralight Tow Car' prize last month at the Caravan Club-run awards.

Judges gave the car four out of five stars during a ceremony at Woburn Abbey in Bedfordshire.

The score was based on the car without a caravan or trailor, how well it tows with a caravan or trailor, and practicality.

Citroën launched the new Citroën C4 Cactus in September last year.

It was tested by a team of judges from Practical Caravan, The Camping and Caravanning Club and What Car? at the Motor Industry Research Association proving ground in the Midlands in April.

The judges rated the C4 Cactus for aspects including high-speed stability, emergency braking, hill-starts and everyday practicality.

Judges praised the French vehicle stating: "If you tow a trailer tent and don't want or need a bigger car, the Citroën C4 Cactus is a great choice.

REVIEW: The new Ford Galaxy

By James Richings

"The Citroën shows a reasonable turn of speed, but as we all know, stability is far more important than pace when towing and this is where the Cactus really presses home its advantage."

Mike Wilson, head of Citroën marketing, collected the award at a ceremony in the Sculpture Gallery at Woburn Abbey on June 11.

"It's brilliant news that the C4 Cactus continues to set the benchmark in this highly competitive segment," Mike said.

"This Tow Car Award adds to the impressive catalogue of achievements for this ground-breaking new Citroën model and ably demonstrates its credentials as a highly versatile and practical family hatchback."

The Citroën C4 Cactus is available from £12,990 on the road.

Scotlands Ash invest six figure sum in developing business

WEST Hagbourne based Scotlands Ash Garage has announced a six-figure sum investment into the business to ensure it continues to lead the provision of vehicle servicing and repair throughout Oxfordshire.

The garage has invested in a new vehicle lift and computer system that allows the garage to service and repair brand new vehicles and communicate with customers more effectively.

Customers can now receive service & MoT reminders, invoices and messages from the garage via SMS or email.

And, for some time now, brand new vehicles have come into the garage as owners bemoan the inadequate servicing standards from main dealers, many of which are outlined on Scotlands Ash Garage's Facebook page. The garage has authorised access to service and repair schedules from vehicle manufacturers, offering motorists greater choice and value for money.

Scotlands Ash Garage proprietor, Peter Welch said: "You can't stand still in this business and we continue to invest in the garage. Maintaining a vehicle has become more and more frustrating for motorists over the years for a number of reasons so the aim, with our investment, is to remove the hassle and make the process as quick and efficient as possible."

The investment follows the Scotlands Ash Garage new website launch www.scotlandsashgarage.co.uk which features latest news and special offers.

For further information about Scotland's Ash Garage, please contact Mark Field at Impression Communications. Tel: 07825 410 998 or email mark@impressioncommunications.co.uk

Club legend to depart United after 27 years

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OXFORD United confirmed last night that club stalwart Micky Lewis is set to step down from his role as assistant Head Coach.

Lewis played for United over 350 times for the U's between 1988 and 2000, scoring 7 goals, before he subsequently joined the coaching set-up.

During Lewis' two spells with the club he performed roles across the coaching staff, from youth team coach to caretaker manager.

The statement from the club read: "He will leave with the very best wishes of everyone at the club. He will remain a lifelong friend to Oxford United."

The 50-year-old was born in Birmingham and played in defence as well as in midfield, having spells at West Bromwich Albion and Derby County in the 80s.

Lewis was the caretaker manager of United for three months from January to March 2014 between Chris Wilder's departure from the club and Gary Waddock's appointment.

The club's Under 18 coach Chris Allen has been promoted to a role in the coaching of the first team.

The club's statement said Allen has 'played a major role in the development of a number of young players' that have come through the academy system into the first team.

Fitness and conditioning coach Alasdair Lane, who is United's head of sports science, will also be joining Lewis in leaving the club.

He has been with the club since 2012 and established and developed the OUFC Sports Science department and the club state 'they wish him well for the future.'

United head coach Michael Appleton said on the departures: "Whilst any staff departures from the football club are always difficult I would personally thank Micky and Alasdair for their efforts during my first season here and wish them the very best for the future."

Appleton was also of big praise for Allen, saying he 'deserves the opportunity' to step up to the first team.

He commented: "I feel has done an outstanding job with the Under 18s and deserves this opportunity to step up to the first team whilst also ensuring the smooth transition of our youth players from the Academy to the first team."

Stars improve squad with deadly duo

OXFORD City Stars have made a double signing as they prepare for the new NIHL South Division One season.

The Stars have secured the signings of experienced centre Steve Osman and talented netminder Connor Ranby.

Osman, 27, joins from Bristol Pitbulls in NIHL2, scoring 17 goals in just 11 games in the second half of last season and has previously played for Division One sides.

Stars' head coach Simon Anderson said of the signing: "Ozzy is a tremendous capture for us and just shows how ambitious we are as a club signing players of his quality.

"We are delighted that he has chosen us and we know that he is going to bring a lot of offence for our team, but I think he has a lot more to his game.

Ranby, 19, has previously played for Coventry Blaze in the Elite League and was part of their play-off winning squad last season.

He will help fill the void left by Stars favourite James Skaife who stepped down from the Stars last month.

Anderson said: "Connor will get certainly get the opportunity to showcase his talents for the fans and for the team."

Saints march into the play-offs

• Grant Tebb charges for a touchdown (Picture by Gareth Brown)

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OXFORD saints secured a place in the 2015 play-offs with a 42-13 win over rivals Swindon Storm on Sunday at Abingdon Rugby Club.

An imperious defensive performance got Oxford over the line in a result, which gives them a 5-2 record in the Division II SFC West standings.

Quarterback Ben Denton got the ball moving, as he and running backs Kev Brooks and James Walter tormented the Storm defence.

Oxford's Grant Tebb charged over for the first score of the game in the first quarter before the defence took over and stifled the sweeping Swindon attack well.

Walter then produced a sterling effort, performing a huge 52-yard run for a touchdown, breaking through several tackles to get to the endzone.

Saints' Spencer Duffy had earlier got the extra point and he secured it for the second time for a 12-0 Oxford lead.

Luke McEnroe then took the spotlight charging a 66-yard touchdown run for the Storm, stunning the Oxford defence before kicking the extra point.

The second quarter saw a tight affair with both defences rallying well and keeping it tight before Denton picked out Tebb for another storming touchdown and Rich Bloomer caught a two-point conversion attempt.

Walter put Oxford into a commanding lead in the third quarter as he charged in for his second touchdown of the day for a 26-7 lead.

The Storm pushed forward but despite the attempts of quarterback Greg Ruscow, Oxford's defence held firm and Adam Baker produced a memorable sack on the Swindon leader.

The fourth quarter saw Oxford consolidate their position, with Denton working well with rookie receiver Tom Swift to gain yards up the field.

Rich Bloomer finished off a slick Oxford move by Denton and full back Ryan Kingshott, carrying the ball into the endzone for a 34-7 lead.

Swindon quickly rallied through Robert Leaper sprinting through the Oxford defence in a 60-yard touchdown run.

Walter then completed his hat-trick of touchdowns, breaking through for a huge 32 yard touchdown run confounding the Storm defence.

Denton handed the ball to Kingshott for the 2-point play and Oxford consolidated the extra points for a final score of 42-13.

Tebb said after the game: "We really felt like we had a point to prove. We are a team on the up and we are marching on."

Academy trio step up to first team

OXFORD United has promoted three exciting prospects to the first team for the coming season.

The club announced on Monday Fullback Freddie Grant, 18, centre-back Robbie Cundy, 18, and midfielder Adriel 'AJ' George, 18, signed new professional deals after spending two years as scholars with the club's academy.

Grant is equally proficient on either wing of the back four and can also step in in the middle.

He spent time on loan at both Margate and Farnborough last season before signing his new deal.

Cundy, a tall defender, returned to United after leaving Aston Villa at 16 and spent time at Daventry and Chesham United last season.

George joined United's centre of excellence at the age of nine and got the call-up to the Antigua and Barbuda under-20 squad last summer.

He is a prolific midfielder with a good eye for goal and can play across the midfield as well as up front.

The trio's coach, Chris Allen, who has worked with them over the last two years, believes that the prospects can take the big step up.

Allen said: "They have a wonderful opportunity in front of them. They've worked hard for the last two years and they are all bright enough to know that this is just the beginning but they deserve their chance and I'm sure they will do well."

Walkinshaw unlucky in Moscow

CHIPPING Norton's Sean Walkinshaw drove his best in a challenging race in round four of the Blancpain Sprint Series at Moscow Raceway in Russia last Saturday.

Walkinshaw, alongside MRS GT-Racing teammate Craig Dolby, headed to Russia ninth in the driver standings.

• Grant Tebb charges for a touchdown (Picture by Gareth Brown)

The drivers secured 12th position in the qualification race before snatching an 11th place finish in the main race.

Walkinshaw said: "It was a frustrating weekend as we were quite badly affected by the BOP the organisers put in place.

"It had a big impact on our acceleration which affected qualifying and our ability to try and overtake in the races.

"Overtaking was the real problem in the races. However, I really enjoyed racing in Moscow for the first time but it's just a shame we couldn't take away some more points."

Dolby took the opening stint in the qualification race but overtaking opportunities were non-existent with the midfield pack tightly bunched from the 14th place position.

Sean took the wheel with 33 minutes remaining and was able to take the car into top 12 for the finish.

Sean then took the opening stint of the main race and after a poor start slipped down to 14th position before Dolby took over and put his foot down to secure an 11th place finish.

Banbury to host T20 final weekend

THE national T20 Finals Day will be held at Banbury Cricket Club this Sunday with Oxfordshire CCC currently in the semi-finals.

The Banbury Club will host the finals day of the inaugural Unicorn's Twenty20 at their White Post Road Ground in Bodicote.

Oxfordshire will have the home advantage on the day and will take on Bedfordshire CCC at 10am.

Oxfordshire CCC captain, Luke Ryan said: "We are in it to win it and looking forward to the day. We are very hungry to get ourselves in the final and pick up some silverware.

Ryan's side were beaten in the final of the MCCA one-day competition last year and are hoping to snatch some silverware on Sunday.

Ryan added: "Conditions don't play as big of a deciding factor in T2- cricket, but any benefit we can benefit from knowing our home surface we will look to exploit."

Banbury Cricket Club chairman, Martin Phillips said: "In my opinion, it's fantastic that our club ground has been given the opportunity to host this prestigious game.

"I am sure the local sporting community in Banbury will get great enjoyment from the opportunity."

Devon CCC and Cheshire CCC will play off in their other semi-final with the final due to take place on the same day at around 4pm.

Cougars rampage Blues in big win in West Yorkshire

OXFORD RL suffered a late defensive collapse, as they couldn't withstand the Keighley Cougars who roared past The Blues in a 44-14 win in West Yorkshire.

Oxford got off to a scintillating start with Sean Morris running underneath the posts and Nathan Kitson adding the extras.

Keighley were shocked and found themselves level through Andy Gabriel who was allowed to run freely into Oxford's right hand corner.

The Cougars were made to wait until 33 minutes to take the lead and after Rikki Sheriffe got the ball from a scrum, his pass to Paul White led to their second try of the day.

Paul March then dived over the line for the Cougars before Oxford's Aaron Jones-Bishop managed to barrel his way over the line for a half-time score of 16-10.

Keighley were looking dangerous after the break and they went further ahead after Josh Lynam was sent through to dive over and Handforth made it 22-10 with the kick.

The Cougars kept coming at The Blues and Sheriffe was sent through by David March shortly afterwards with Handforth scoring his conversion.

Oxford's Marcus Brooker made it 28-14 for Oxford before a 15-minute scramble after lighting hit the Danny Jones Stand in which The Cougars scored three ties through Ash Lindsay, Hamish Barnes and White to add some flair to the final scoreline.

Sport Bites

New signing

FOOTBALL: North Leigh have signed Didcot Town goalkeeper James Foster ahead of the new season.

Didcot Town joint-manager, Ian Concannon confirmed the news yesterday and said: "We're a bit disappointed to see him go this way but that's the way football goes.

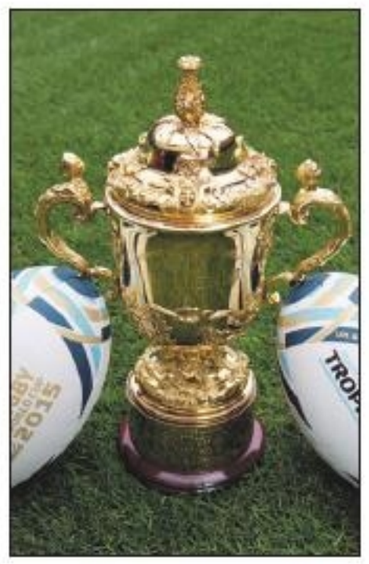
The signing follows Didcot Town signing Banbury United goalkeeper Leigh Bedwell last month which may have been a decisive factor in Foster's departure.

World cup trophy visit

RUGBY: The Webb Ellis Trophy (pictured) will be making its way to Oxford next month as it makes its way down the country towards the Rugby World Cup in September.

Oxford rugby fans will be given the chance to have their picture taken with the trophy as part of a free 'Rugby in the Parks' celebration in South Parks on August 23 from 10am to 6pm.

Many rugby-related activities will be on offer such as masterclasses on the sport and the chance to meet Oxfordshire's local teams.



Spanish trio

FOOTBALL: Oxford City added to their spanish contingent at the club with the triple signing of three Spanish players yesterday.

City secured the signings of centre-back Jon Arzamendi from Real Union, midfielder Carlos Pifarre from Olimpic de Xativa and midfielder Juan Lafuenta from Deportivo Alaves.

The signings joining the returning Spanish contingent of Jose Lapoujade, Alejandro Santiago and Ander del Alamo who were already at the club.

City players returned to training this week and were also joined by the signings of Kynan Issac who has been released by Luton Town and Mark Bell from Chesham United.

City are set to begin their packed pre-season with a interesting contest at Southern League side Hungerford Town this Saturday, which is being played at Newbury Town FC ground.

LOTUS DRIVERS OUT ON LAP ONE

LOTUS F1's home grand prix at Silverstone was over before it really got going, after both drivers were taken out in a collision on the first lap.

Romain Grosjean had started 12th and Pastor Maldonado 14th for the British Grand Prix on Sunday, with both feeling optimistic about moving up into the points.

But at the second corner the Red Bull of Daniel Ricciardo hit Grosjean's Lotus, and the Frenchman was out of the race immediately.

And as a further blow for the Enstone-based squad, the accident meant Grosjean struck Maldonado's car, causing substantial damage.

Maldonado managed to get a few corners further, but had to pull off after the team instructed him the damage was too great to continue.

"That was a very short race for the team and I feel for everyone at Enstone," said Grosjean.

"Daniel must have thought his brakes and tyres would be able to slow him better than they did and the result was the end of both my and Pastor's race.

"No-one likes to end a grand prix like that as so much effort goes into making and preparing the cars, and I know we have many fans who want to see us race so I feel for them too."

For Maldonado, the retirement ended a short run of two consecutive races in the points.

He said: "At first I thought I had a puncture and would be able to return to the pits and rejoin the race, but unfortunately the damage to the car was more serious than that and I had to retire.

"There is nothing you can do in situations like that as it's all part of racing.

"Now my focus is on the next race where we'll be trying our very best as always."

Despite the result, Grosjean stays 10th in the drivers' championship standings with 17 points, while Maldonado is 13th with 12 points.

Following the cancellation of the German Grand Prix on July 19, the next race will be the Hungarian round on July 26.
